

The books of account, records, reports and other documents of CAR shall be open and free for examination to the Insurance Commissioner and Members.

The books of account of CAR shall be audited at least every twelve months by a firm of independent certified public accountants designated by the Governing Committee.